

IMSA, Hyderabad collaborated with NRC on Meat for organizing National Workshop

One day workshop on 'Implementation of livestock/ meat traceability in India' was organized at National Research Centre on Meat, Hyderabad on 04th August 2014. Workshop was arranged in collaboration with Indian Meat Science Association (IMSA), Hyderabad. Representatives from various export abattoirs, cooperative societies (National Dairy Development Board, Gujarat), researchers and academicians from different Universities and ICAR Institutions of the country have participated in the event.

IMSA members participated in National workshop